A note from Page

Don't make these if anyone in your house has a peanut allergy!

This recipe makes a delicious and healthy snack. It's also great as a breakfast food. Make a couple and save them for later for when you need energy for an adventure!

Ingredients:

- 1 Large Tortilla (Regular or Whole Wheat)*
- ¼ cup of peanut butter
- 1 Tablespoon of honey
- 1 cup of granola (crushed)

Optional Mix-Ins:

- Raisins
- Bananas
- Jam
- Nuts
- Shredded Coconut
- Chopped up apples

Whatever else sounds good!

Directions:

1. Spread the peanut butter on the entire tortilla.
2. Drizzle the honey over the peanut butter.
3. Place the granola in a plastic bag and crush into small pieces with a can of beans (or whatever can you have handy!)
4. Spread the granola over the peanut butter and honey.
5. You can stop here or add some "mix-ins." (Page Turner likes raisins and bananas.)
6. Roll up the tortilla. (You might need some peanut butter to hold it closed.)
7. Cut into one-inch slices.
